2021 EDITORIAL CALENDAR

*L*ouisiana Cookin' celebrates the unique cuisine, culture, and travel destinations of the Bayou State. Published six times a year, the magazine has a dedicated following of subscribers who are passionate about Louisiana's culinary traditions.

Our January/February issue gets the good times rolling with recipes worthy of any Mardi Gras celebration. March/April is an homage to Louisiana's crawfish season, with plenty of new recipes featuring the tasty crustaceans. May/June explores Louisiana's backwaters, main streets, and more with our annual travel issue. July/August offers new ways with Louisiana's plentiful produce and world-class seafood, and September/October showcases some of the most talented chefs throughout Louisiana with our annual class of Chefs to Watch. Celebrate the splendor of the holiday season with the heartwarming recipes in our November/December issue.

Each issue is packed with authentic recipes and modern interpretations in columns such as Light & Fresh, In Season, Quick & Easy, and Local Pantry. In Afield & Afloat, renowned chef John Folse shares his wealth of knowledge about cooking with wild game and seafood throughout the seasons. Beyond recipes, Spillin' the Beans keeps readers up-to-date on all the restaurant openings and food news they need to know about, and Louisiana's Best rounds up a few of our favorite spots throughout the Bayou State for beignets, brunch, gumbo, and more. This next year is certain to serve up plenty of fresh inspiration, and I look forward to introducing you to our publication and readers.

Sincerely,

Caitlin Watzke
