Award-winning TeaTime magazine boasts an engaged readership who are enchanted by the many aspects of tea culture. Reading each bimonthly issue cover to cover (including advertisements), they soak in our educational articles and informative columns, find inspiration in our lovely table settings and bespoke menus for afternoon tea, and relish the expert tea pairings we provide.

Beginning with the March/April 2021 issue, the magazine will have an increased page count of 96 plus covers for a total of 100 pages. We are excited to be able to showcase our beautiful full-color photography in those additional pages by expanding and enhancing many of our regular features. Contributing editors Jane Pettigrew, James Norwood Pratt, and Bruce Richardson as well as our own talented staff and other gifted writers will provide more must-read content for tea lovers.

The March/April 2021 issue, TeaTime's 100th regular one, will be decked out for springtime festivities and will feature a special look back at the publication's history and notable milestones. Weddings and families will be the focus of the May/June issue, while our July/August issue will be properly steeped in all things British. The hues and flavors of autumn will permeate our September/October issue, and we will celebrate the holidays with a variety of afternoon teas and our annual gift guide in our November/December issue. To ring in 2022, our January/February issue will fête the charms of France—from fabulous fare and favorite tea blends to exquisite porcelains and enchanting venues for tea.

I look forward to welcoming you to the pages of TeaTime in 2021 as we celebrate the wonderful world of tea together.

Cheers,

Editor, TeaTime

Goodnight Moo by Mollie Cox Bryan

In Mollie Cox Bryan's newest book, discover welcoming Shenandoah Springs, Virginia, the bucolic small town where Brynn MacAllister keeps cows, churns cheeses—and is sharper than the ripest Cheddar when it comes to solving mysteries. But when a mysterious tractor accident looks suspiciously like murder, Brynn suspects someone is up to no-Gouda. This book is the perfect reason to make Lemon Oil Cucumber Sandwiches and steep a pot of your favorite autumn tea to enjoy this delightful mystery.

Digging Up the Remains by Julia Henry

In Julia Henry's newest book, a festive fall is in full swing in Goosebush, Massachusetts, but when a snoopy reporter is felled by foul play, it's up to protagonist Lily and her Garden Squad to spook out a killer. This captivating book is the perfect excuse to steep a cup of your favorite tea, pull together an assortment of teatime sweets, and take a seat in your favorite chair. Don't forget to enjoy exclusive fall gardening tips from the author!

Get acquainted with our latest Cozy Corner mystery! In Kristen Weiss' new book, a poetry slam at a bakery ends on a sour note when a professor is found murdered mere moments after being accused of plagiarism. The case is as tough as an overworked crust, and the amateur detectives are only coming up with scraps. If they don't catch the killer soon, the town's reputation could crumble. Enjoy an exclusive Chocolate Cream Pie recipe to pair with this intriguing book and a cup of your favorite tea. <http://bit.ly/3/CNhKC>
