Southern CAST IRON

From the start, Southern Cast Iron has been guided by its love of cast iron and the relationships that are forged with our readers. Passed down from generation to generation, cast iron is a treasure beyond worth; an heirloom skillet bears the memories of a thousand meals and experiences, seasoned into its storied surface layer by layer. Fans of cast iron are immediately drawn to our brand and become loyal and devoted readers, using Southern Cast Iron as a resource for cooking, collecting, restoring, and learning about all things cast iron.

In every issue of Southern Cast Iron, readers can expect to find a healthy dose of Southern home cooking and baking using many different types of cast iron, from classic pieces including skillets and Dutch ovens to more unique vessels like wedge and loaf pans and antique cake and cookie molds. But no matter which cast-iron pan is used to cook and bake, delicious recipes are sure to follow. By taking stock of what's in season, we fill our pages with tasty, seasonally appropriate recipes that are easy to follow and accompanied by beautiful photography. We like to think of our recipes as old meets new: It's classic Southern cooking that inspires us, but with each turn of the page comes a bounty of fresh inspiration. From comforting, savory skillet suppers to simple, sweet treats, there's something for everyone to enjoy.

We also take pride in giving our readers technique-based columns to help solve dinnertime dilemmas, featuring both established and upcoming chefs, cooks, and bloggers who are present in the cast iron community, showcasing products that we use in our very own kitchens, sharing tips for how to shop for and care for new and vintage pieces, as well as providing stories of collectors and foundries.

Our mission is to bring joy to our readers through our love of cast iron, providing inspiration to discover new and unexpected recipes while also finding comfort in the beloved flavors of classic home cooking. We recognize the ways in which cast iron can bring people together, and we're proud to celebrate the cast iron community and the traditions, both in and out of the kitchen, that come along with it. We strive to make Southern Cast Iron the go-to guide each time our readers pull their favorite skillet out of the cupboard. Join us on the adventure!

Sincerely,

Nancy Meeks
Editor, Southern Cast Iron
